

Logistics Protection Service

Release Date: 2021-12-30

Effective Date: 2022-01-08

1. Definition and Applicable Conditions

Logistics protection service is a value-added service provided by SaleYee dropshipping platform for distributors to reduce the operation cost when logistics track shows that the items have been delivered but the end consumer claims not to have received the items.

Once the distributor pays for the protection service when placing an order on the SaleYee dropshipping platform, if the conditions are by his agreement, the SaleYee dropshipping platform will compensate the distributor.

The logistics protection service applies to the logistics track showing “delivered” while the end customer claims not to have received the items.

2. Logistics Protection Service Fee

The logistics protection service fee is 2% of the purchase order amount. It needs to be paid on the order settlement.

Note: When a distributor's risk rate is significantly higher than the normal level, SaleYee reserves the right to make targeted adjustments to the service fee rate and will notify the distributor in advance of any such adjustments. If the distributor continues to use the service, it means that it accepts the adjusted fee standard.

3. Compensation Rules

- (1) Compensation amount: 100% of the order amount (excluding payment transaction fee).
- (2) The claims application is valid within 40 days from the date of the order being paid. If the order occurs problem within logistics service coverage, the distributor needs to initiate the compensation within the time limit, otherwise, the order is no longer eligible for compensation.
