Dear business partner,

Due to the adjustment of the technical interface of Shopify, SaleYee dropshipping will optimize related functions on 18:00 February 15, 2023. Meanwhile, SaleYee will adjust the status of your connected Shopify store account to "Unauthorized." To ensure account authorization, order sync, SKU mapping, and other functions work properly for you, please go to [My SaleYee] >> [Third-party platform] >> [Platform sync authorization] to enable them for your Shopify account.

If you have any questions, please contact your account manager in time.

We apologize for the inconvenience and sincerely thank you for your understanding and support.
